“Concerned Relatives”

Hello, friends.

In my last Update, I mentioned our finding weapons, and that our young people were being threatened by gang activities.

It's interesting the fear that is inspired in the hearts of concerned relatives when they think of family members going into harms way. This is true of war and many other endeavors. Our family has been in active spiritual warfare for many years. We've received threats – death threats. The enemy does not like what we are doing and would like to stop us. But we are here to pass on “Good News of great joy that will be for all the people” (young and old). We are feeding the hungry and caring for the poor. Yet there are still those who do not like it. What do we do? Continue doing good.

It's been documented innumerable times that people will go to any length to save or protect their loved ones in harms way.

Jesus said, “Love one another as I have loved you.” When Christ's love compels us, “danger to oneself” takes on a different perspective. When we live knowing that our lives both now and the future are in His hands, fear takes it's proper place. Oh, yes, I want to go to Heaven... only not today. To go today would be selfish when there are millions dying, some of whom by God's grace we might be instrumental in leading to safety.

If you have a friend or relative here visiting or assisting us in ministry, remember, they are following their hearts. I do not claim we live or minister in a location where no harm can be done. This world--as well documented on 9/11--is a dangerous world. However, I can claim that anyone coming to minister in this location, in the center of God's will, is in the safest place on this planet. As my father has said, “It's even safer than the best hospital in town.”

For the King and His kids!
